EDUCATION AND CARE SERVICES NATIONAL REGULATIONS
155	Interactions with children
156	Relationships in groups

Purpose

At TASK we aim to build positive relationships with children, families, and educators through collaboration and interactions, which is reflective of our Service philosophy and MTOP.

This policy indicates the ways that are appropriate for staff to interact with the service's children to ensure that they feel safe, supported and respected. It is the responsibility of every staff member to make certain that the dignity and rights of every child are to be maintained at all times at the service.

Responsibilities of the Approved Provider

- Ensure the service operates in accordance with the Education and Care Services National Law and National Regulations 2011 with regard to the delivery and collection of children at all times.
- Ensure all staff have access to relevant professional development.
- Ensure the educational program contributes to the development of children who have a strong sense of wellbeing and identity, and are connected, confident, involved and effective learners and communicators.

- Ensure that the Nominated Supervisor and all staff members at the service who work with children are aware that it is an offence to subject a child to any form of corporal punishment, or any discipline that is unreasonable or excessive in the circumstances (National Law 166).
- Inform the Regulatory Authority in writing, within 24 hours of receiving a notifiable complaint (National Law 174(B)).
- Inform the Regulatory Authority in writing within 24 hours of a serious incident occurring at the service (National Regulation 12, National Law 173(A)).

Responsibilities of the Nominated Supervisor

- Guide professional development and practice to promote interactions with children that are positive and respectful through the use of the ECA Code of Ethics and UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- Guide children's behaviour positively
- Establish practice guidelines that ensure interactions with children are given priority and those interactions are authentic.
- Ensure all staff are aware of the service's expectations regarding positive, respectful and appropriate behaviour, and acceptable responses and reactions when working with children and families.
- Ensure that staff provides education and care to children in a way that encourages children to express themselves and their opinions and allows children to undertake experiences that develop self-reliance and self-esteem.
- Provide new educators with relevant information about the Service and program through the TASK handbook, induction, and daily communication.
- Treat Educators with respect.
- Provide constructive feedback to Educators.
- Provide opportunities for all educators to have input and evaluate the program.
- Use appropriate conflict resolution techniques to solve problems.
- Ensure policies and procedures are up to date regarding communication, expected behaviour and grievances.
- Provide opportunities for professional development

Responsibilities of the Educators

- Act in accordance with the obligations outlined in this policy.
- Acknowledge children's complex relationships and sensitively intervene in ways that promote consideration and alternative perspectives and social inclusion.
- Respect children's agency and encourage them to express themselves and their opinions.
- Maintains the dignity and the rights of each child at all times.
- Have regard to the cultural and family values, age, and the physical and intellectual development and abilities of each child being educated and cared for.
- Offer positive guidance and encouragement towards acceptable behaviour.
- Genuinely seek children's input, respect their ideas and take their suggestions on board.

- Our educators will listen empathetically to children when they express their emotions, reassure them that it is normal to experience positive and negative emotions and guide children to remove themselves from situations where they are experiencing frustration, anger or fear.
- Participate in children's play using children's cues to guide their level and type of involvement while always maintaining a positive approach when responding to children.
- Model reasoning, prediction and reflection processes and language.
- Collaborate with children about routines and experiences.
- Use techniques such as sign language and other resources and tools to support children with additional needs.
- Use information from their observations of interactions with children to extend the children's thinking and learning.
- Also support children to build secure attachments with one and then many educators.
- Speak to children in a positive manner at all times, promoting respect, tolerance and empathy, including the use of non-verbal cues and communication.
- Listen to children and take them seriously; support and encourage children to use appropriate language in their interactions with adults and peers. Educators will extend upon children's interests and ideas through questions and discussions, supported and made visible in observations, reflections, and programming.
- Communicate with children by getting down to their level, using eye contact, and showing respect to the child whilst engaging in and promoting effective communication.
- All families are treated equitably without bias or judgement, recognising that each family is unique.
- Verbal communication is always open, respectful and honest.

Responsibilities of the Families

- Read and comply with this policy.
- Engage in open communication with staff about their child.
- Inform staff of events or incidents that may impact on their child's behaviour at the service (e.g. moving house, a new sibling).
- Inform staff of any concerns regarding their child's behaviour or the impact of other children's behaviour.
- Work collaboratively with staff and others to develop or review an individual behaviour guidance plan for their child, where appropriate.

Children's rights, Family and Cultural Values

Interactions within the setting are greatly enhanced when children's rights and family and cultural values are given due consideration and respect. Administrative procedures, initial conversations, documentation and ongoing communication with children and families are a reference point for interactions and a foundation for authentic and respectful communication.

Communicating and Listening

Educators and staff must use listening as a foundation for interactions. Listening is based on observation and in leaving spaces in conversations and communication, suspending judgement and in giving full attention to children as they communicate. Truly attending to children's communication promotes a strong culture of listening.

Role Modelling

Educators model positive interactions when they show care, have empathy and respect for children, educators, staff and families.

Principles for Behavioural Management

Staff respect individual children's needs and differences in age, ability and experience regarding issues surrounding behaviour management and they are happy to discuss individual family expectations with parents. There may be times when staff will need to negotiate management strategies with parents to suit the needs of individual children.

- Wherever possible, children and staff will negotiate and determine boundaries and rules
- Rules will be reasonable considering the age, development and individual characteristics of the children
- Rules will be consistently enforced
- Children will be encouraged for desirable behaviour
- It is the behaviour that is praised or criticised, not the child
- Staff to present a good example through positive role modelling
- Children are encouraged to make appropriate choices

In response to unacceptable behaviour, staff will:

- Redirect the child or remove the child from the situation if necessary
- Advise children of the consequences of continuing with the behaviour
- Remind children of desirable behaviour
- Explain to children how behaviour results in consequences
- Actively listen to children's feelings and discuss the rules
- Help children to return to play
- Communicate with family should there be a need
